SECOND SATURDAY CONCERT

March 10, 2018 7:30 p.m.

David Massengill

David Massengill

David at Newport

David with Dave Van Ronk

By birth a Tennessean, David Massengill “emigrated” to the Greenwich Village folk scene in the mid-70’s, walking the same streets and playing the same storied coffee houses as Dylan and Van Ronk. His songs have been covered and recorded by Joan Baez, The Roches, Lucy Kaplansky, Tom Russell, Nanci Griffith and his mentor, Dave

Van Ronk, who said David “took the dull out of dulcimer!” Notes Music Boulevard, “That David made the lap dulcimer his instrument of choice tells us a lot about the soft-spoken native of eastern Tennessee. He accompanies his performance with an instrument indelibly Appalachian, yet conquers even the most urban of musical communities. He does it without losing that remarkable gift for true storytelling.”

His songs have a way of touching us very deeply. Songs like "Rider On An Orphan Train" a narrative ballad ringing with truth and anguish" (Washington Post), "Number One In America", a riveting and ironic civil rights anthem" (Boston Globe) and "On the Road to Fairfax County", a tale of a young girl and an outlaw.

David has released six albums, eleven bootlegs and fourteen books to date, including "Partners in Crime", the debut album of The FolkBrothers, David's duo project with the late great Jack Hardy. David's coming all they way from Tennessee to play for us. Please put March 10 on your calendar and join us for a great evening.

Second Saturday Concert is presented by the Houston Folklore and Music Society, a nonprofit organization dedicated to the preservation of folklore and acoustic music. Homemade refreshments are available. Tickets are sold at the door - adults $15, senior citizens (65) $11, and children under 12 free with adults. Concerts are held the second Saturdays of each month in the West University Community Center at 6104 Auden (One mile west down Rice Boulevard from the Rice Stadium parking lot.) Phone Paul Cooper at 713-204-1207 (cell) for more concert information. Visit our website at: www.houstonfolkmusic.org

OTHER UPCOMING HFMS MARCH EVENTS

Meetings consist of a "song circle", allowing each attendee an opportunity to share a song, story, announcement, or other item which he or she may wish to share with the group. Non-performers are just as welcome as performers. After all, musicians, singers, and storytellers all need an audience.

You can invite other members to help you co-host, to share the fun (and the effort). Please contact Carolyn Davis at carolynadavis@aol.com to volunteer to host in May, June or July 2018.

LAST MONTH'S HAPPENINGS

 February Monday Song Circle met at the JCC on February 5.

Though a few of our regular Monday circle members were missing (and missed), several pickers and singers enjoyed good music and warm friendship.

One of the highlights of our song circles is the collaboration - - sometimes spontaneous
- - sometimes rehearsed - - always delightful.

Joe Crookston's February Second Saturday Concert was an excellent portrayal of his superb musicianship and outstanding songwriting gift. Joe also brought a few of his paintings. He is certainly a very multi-dimensional person and a multi-talented artist.

 Featured Song

WRAP ME UP IN ME OILSKINS AND JUMPER

The notion of an afterlife called Fiddlers Green where old sailors go (those who don't go to hell, anyway) first appears in literature in an 1856 novel by Frederick Marryat called The Dog Fiend. This song was written in 1960 by John Connolly and paints a lovely picture of this place long-celebrated in myth, story and song. You can hear a nice version of this song by The New Barleycorn at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cBp1uiGHu-M>, or on the Audio Archive of the HFMS website at http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/HFS_Audio_Archive.html. To play along with this version, capo II and play in D as shown below.

FIDDLERS GREEN

By John Connolly

D Bm
As I roved by the dockside one evening so fair

D A
To view the salt waters and take the salt air

G F#m
I heard an old fisherman singing a song

D G D A
Saying, take me away boys me time is not long

Chorus:

D A D
Wrap me up in me oilskins and jumper

G F#m A
No more on the docks I'll be seen

G F#m
Just tell me old shipmates, I'm taking a trip mates

Em F#m A D
And I'll see you someday in Fiddlers Green

Now Fiddler's Green is a place I've heard tell
Where fishermen go if they don't go to hell
Where the skies are all clear and the dolphins do play
And the cold coast of Greenland is far, far away

Chorus...

When you land on the dock and the long trip is through
There's pubs and there's clubs and there's lassies there too
Where the girls are all pretty and the beer it is free
And there's bottles of rum hanging from every tree.

Chorus...

Where the skies are all clear and there's never a gale
And the fish jump on board with one swish on their tail
Where you lie at your leisure, there's no work to do
And the skipper's below making tea for the crew

Chorus...

Now I don't want a harp nor a halo, not me
Just give me a breeze and a good rolling sea
I'll play me old squeeze-box as we sail along
With the wind in the riggin to sing me a song

Chorus....
