SECOND SATURDAY CONCERT

September 8, 2018 7:30 p.m.

John Flynn

John Flynn sings from the heart. His powerful songs of humanity and hope are deeply rooted in the traditions of Woody Guthrie and Phil Ochs. John paints vivid, lasting images with words and music, drawn from a palette of awareness, irony, humor, and compassion. John's artistic journey has taken him from Temple University, where he earned a degree in Political Science, to Nashville's Music Row as a songwriter, to award-winning children's recording artist and performer, to social justice activist. John is truly an American troubadour.

John has shared the stage with some of the greats of our time, Willie Nelson, Arlo Guthrie, Kris Kristofferson, to name a few. Arlo invited John to join his Train to New Orleans tour post-Hurricane Katrina, and Kris Kristofferson has not only sung on two of John's CDs, but has given John previously unrecorded material to use. Sonny Ochs, the sister of the late great songwriter, Phil Ochs, has made John one of the mainstays of her Phil Ochs Song Nights that tours nationally.

John walks his talk. When off the road, he leads a prison discussion group, is very involved with Camp Dreamcatcher, a safe haven for children living with and affected by HIV/AIDS, and is an advocate for wider understanding and treatment of PTSD suffered by our returning war veterans.

Second Saturday Concert is presented by the Houston Folklore/Music Society, a nonprofit organization dedicated to the preservation of folklore and folk/acoustic music. Coffee, water, cookies and sandwiches are available. Tickets are sold at the door - adults $18, students (with ID), senior citizens (65) $14, and children under 12 free with adults. Concerts are held the second Saturdays of each month in the West University Community Building at 6104 Auden (intersection of Auden. and Rice Blvd.) Phone Paul Cooper at 713-204-1207 (cell) for more concert information. Visit our website at: www.houstonfolkmusic.org

Upcoming Second Saturday Concerts:

October 13, 2018: Bill and Kate Isles

November 10, 2018: Mustard's Retreat

January 12, 2019: Albert and Gage

OTHER UPCOMING HFMS SEPTEMBER EVENTS

No HFMS Meeting/Song Circle this month, as the JCC is closed for holidays for the next few Mondays.

SEPTEMBER PICKIN' PARTY

Remember the important change to Pickin' Party Potluck tradition: The potluck meal will now become a "true potluck". Host will no longer be responsible for providing the "main dish / meat. Participants should bring their choice of meat, side dish or desert. (We are putting the "luck" back in pot luck.)

The next Pickin' Party is from 2:00-6:00 PM, Sunday, September 23 at the home of Sia Beaton. Sia will provide drinks, plates, utensils, etc. Bring a dish (meat, side or desert) for the pot luck meal, which is from 2:00 to 3:00 PM. The song circle will be from 3:00 to 6:00 PM. Guests are always welcome at our Pickin' Parties! Bring food to share, as well as an instrument, voice and/or ear.

Directions: The address is 12815 Bonnywood Lane, Cypress. Take 290 to Telge exit and go north. Turn right on Cricket Hollow, then right on Enchanted Valley, then left on Bonnywood Lane. Sia's house is the 3rd house on the left.

It is always fun to host a Pickin' Party at your home, church hall, community center, etc. You provide the space drinks, plates and utensils. You can invite other members to help you co-host, to share the fun (and the effort). Please contact Carolyn Davis at carolynadavis@aol.com to volunteer to host in the future.

LAST MONTH'S HAPPENINGS

August's Monday Song Circle met at the JCC on August 6.

A small, enthusiastic group of musicians gathered, along with a couple of delightful first time listeners, for a nice evening of sharing music. Music from voices, mandolins, guitar, and mountain dulcimer, as well as piano (thanks, Neely) filled the room.

 August's Pickin' Party was hosted by Anderson Fair, continuing the long tradition of August Pickin' Parties in this historic music venue. A large crowd of members and a couple of first time visitors (hopefully, future members) enjoyed great food (thanks, Paul, for smoking the delicious brisket), with a particularly huge spread of delectable deserts, followed by music and stories. Guitars, mandolins, dulcimers, flutes, harmonicas and voices filled the room.

Thank you, Anderson Fair!!!

DON'T TELL A SOUL

Paul Sachs is an alumnus of Jack Hardy's Monday night songwriting gatherings in Greenwich Village. In 2010, he ventured from his life-long home of New York City for a road trip to Kerrville, Texas with Jack. He returned to Texas as a finalist in the Kerrville Folk Festival New Folk Competition in 2012 and as a winner in 2013. Paul loves coming to Texas, and is playing at Carolyn's Cottonwood Concerts October 20.

Paul's maternal grandparents met in New York City after they emigrated from Ireland. This Irish heritage is subtly evident in some of his songwriting, including Family Secrets. You can hear this song on his excellent just-released CD, Full Detroit, or on the Audio Archive page of our HFMS website at http://houstonfolkmusic.org/HFS_Audio_Archive.html.

FAMILY SECRETS

By Paul Sachs

D G
Off the coast of Ireland my mother's parents came.

D Bm Em A
Landed in Hell's Kitchen long before I had a name.

Bm Bm7 G Gm
"Don't tell a soul what I've said to you,"

D G A D
My father whispered – I don't know if it was true.

G A D Bm G A7 D
Outside the wind is blowin' co--o--old – -- family secrets remain untold.

My uncle was in Rikers – had a shamrock tattoo.
Ran with the Westies back in nineteen eighty-two.
He told me how to steal – how to cheat and lie;
To this day I don't know how that man died.

Outside the wind is blowin' co--o--old – -- family secrets remain untold..

G A7 D
Grandma would take me into church every day.

G A
We'd go to the Blarney Cove after we'd prayed.

Bm Bm7 E7
Sawdust on the floor – whiskey on our lips.

G Em A7
Burnt-out Chesterfield between her fingertips.

They're all gone now – into the light of day.
Into the Irish silence where there's nothing left to say.
To the quiet meaning of blood ties that fade.
Where unanswered questions are taken to the grave.

G A D Bm G A7 D
Still outside the wind is blowin' co—o--old – --family secrets remain untold.

G A D
Down the line, down the road –

G A Bm E7 G Gm
Family secrets, family secrets

ATTENTION! FUNDRAISING ANNOUNCEMENT!

Please help Houston Folklore and Music Society continue to bring excellent performers to Houston for our Second Saturday Concerts. You can help at no cost if you ever make purchases from Amazon. Simply go to smile.amazon.com, sign into your Amazon account and select “Houston Folklore and Music Society” as your charitable organization. After that, go to smile.amazon.com each time you shop at Amazon, and Amazon will automatically donate 0.5% of the amount of your purchase to HFMS.

Every little bit helps! These funds will help us continue the long tradition of HFMS activities, particularly Second Saturday Concerts. Please send this information to anyone you know who might help support our organization in this way. It just takes a minute and will help us continue the HFMS tradition.

THANK YOU!!!

The Way We Were: Robert K.

by Andrew Longo

Over the years, there have been some rather unique visitors to our song circles. One such was a young fellow named Robert. He would take the bus from his place of work to visit with us at the Unitarian Church in downtown Houston. He would accompany himself on a guitar borrowed from within the circle as he often sang television themes from western television shows. He also sang French and German folk songs during his visits. One might refer to his personality as socially awkward. Will Damewood and I took turns driving Robert home after the meetings. Thus we got to know him a little better. He worked at several odd jobs. One of which he was proud to be hired for was that of a census taker for the US government. In 1994, the movie "Ed Wood" was released in theaters. Ed Wood was an eccentric cross-dressing individual who dreamed that he could make movies in Hollywood. It starred Johnny Depp and Martin Landau. Martin Landau won an Oscar for best supporting actor in his role of Bela Lugosi. Robert was delighted by this movie. So much so, that he wrote "The Ballad of Ed Wood". His ballad does a fine job in covering all of the key elements of the film. Robert left Houston to care for his aging mother. After her death, he visited us once again on a return trip to the Houston area.

PICKIN'

We had a fine pickin party at Anderson Fair Sunday, and thanks to Tim Leatherwood and the volunteers for hosting us. It was unfortunate that we didn't even get around the circle twice, and some folks only got to do one song. In part, that's the price of having a successful program: We had a lot of people there. It's also a good occasion for thinking about how we can be considerate of one another and make the circles work as smoothly and as user-friendly as possible.

Obviously, when we're time-limited, the more we talk the less we're going to be able to play. If we average spending as much time talking about the songs as playing them, then 50% of our time is going into talking. Also, to reiterate a few suggestions we've circulated in the past (but not lately): 1) Tasteful playing of fills, background accompaniment, harmony singing, is fine, as long as the singer is the principal thing we hear. Don't forget that the song belongs to the person doing it – we will each have our turn in the spotlight. One can always request no playing along if it's a new song, or they feel the playing would be distracting to them. 2) We need to be ready to go when our turn comes. The less time spent tuning, borrowing somebody's stand, finding our lead sheets – the more time for singing.

Generally, it's a "do unto others..." thing. If we have to tune, then we need to tune. If we want to talk about how this song relates to the story of our life, keep in mind that we can save that for some time when we have a small group.
