DEAR MEMBERS OF THE HOUSTON FOLKLORE & MUSIC SOCIETY

From March to the end of the year, the COVID19 virus has caused a cessation of our usual society activities, which include; monthly song circles, picking parties, and the production of the Second Saturday Concert series. Because of this, the board would like to grant an extension to the expiration dates of your memberships by ten months. We understand many of you have been supporting individual artists via contributions to their online performances; we know how much they must appreciate your kind efforts! If you have the ability and wish to contribute to the HFMS, you would also have our deepest appreciation! For online donations please go to houstonfolkmusic.org OR contact Paul Cooper, Treasurer at 713-204-1207 or pcooper1@peoplepc.com.

FROM THE EDITOR**

In times of uncertainty it's always good to remember you have friends in the music community but don't forget those outside our community as well! You are gifted with your talents for a reason. Music is meant to be shared and you can spread joy with a simple song or tune, sung or played from your front porch, via audio recording from your phone, or even virtually over a Zoom meeting. Keep music in your life and a song in your heart! If you know of any local or virtual events coming up that you'd like to share, or if you have an article you think may be of interest to the folk music community, please email Cehlana: Celtic.Music@aol.com and be sure to include LOCAL EVENTS (or CPR Article) in the subject line; we'll do our best to include it in the next issue.

OCTOBER FEATURED SONG

ONE KIND FAVOR

by Paul Cooper

I was listening to Lightnin' Hopkins sing this on 33rpm vinyl before I ever heard him do it at the Will Rice commons in Houston in 1962. But this song goes way back before that. It was recorded (and some say written) by Blind Lemon Jefferson in 1927. The list of people who have recorded it since goes on forever, as does the number of different ways to treat the song. Listening to different versions on YouTube was so interesting that I have provided two versions for contrast. First, a modern ensemble arrangement by Del McCoury and Friends where they treat it almost like a spiritual:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zsTd-SjxMX8>

I have transcribed the chords from that version.

Next, Blind Lemon himself: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6tVxz_1wigw.

You can also listen to both versions on the HFMS Audio Archive page at http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/HFS_Audio_Archive.html.

Have you ever hear that church bells tone?

And there's two white horses in a line

Did you ever hear them church bells tone?

And there's two white horses in a line

Means another poor boy is dead and gone

Two white horses in a line

Gonna take me to my burying ground

There's just one last favor I'll ask of you

And there's one last favor I'll ask of you

Did you ever hear that coughin' sound?

There's just one last favor I'll ask of you

Did you ever hear that coughin' sound?

See that my grave is kept clean
