RAG WELCOMES NEW EDITOR

First of all, our deepest thanks to Carolyn Davis for a great job editing The Cotton Patch Rag for four years, especially while she was both Rag editor and Second Saturday Concert producer at the same time. We now welcome Cehlana Solus as Editor, starting with this issue. Cehlana, the founder of the Celtic Group Wylde Meade, is a performing musician and songwriter. We are happy to have her creativity and knowledge of music behind the editorial desk. Please note her invitation on page 6 to send in any information about local events that you would like to see in the pages of the Rag.

WHILE WE WAIT

by Andy Longo

With the suspension of song circles and pickin' parties, this may be a good time to consider the fun of dabbling in the construction of a simple instrument. It can be rewarding to complete and experience the joy of realizing its capability. The cigar box guitar is one form of the basic string instrument. It has but a single string; it belongs to the class of "didley bows".

As you look at it, you can see that you will not need much in the way of instructions. One reference that may be helpful is a spreadsheet which will give you the required fret spacing for the scale length that you choose. This spreadsheet uses the "rule of 18" to calculate the fret spacing for you: EXCEL for FRET SPACING

Three and four string cigar box guitars have been seen in the hands of many accomplished musicians.

Cigar box builders are known for using available hardware to complete their instruments such as cabinet hinges, tread-stock, and other miscellaneous household items. However, you may wish to order components from the likes of:

C B Gitty, an enterprise that deals in components of a cigar box instrument as well as pick-ups and amplifiers. <https://www.cbgitty.com/>

You may wish to start out with a complete kit. Backyard Music deals in banjo, dulcimer and harp kits: <https://www.backyardmusic.com/Welcome.html>

Another good supplier of kit components is MGB Guitars, they also sell necks and bodies for mini guitars and ukuleles. <https://mgbguitars.com/>

Steward MacDonald is a company dealing in premium components and kits. Their website is interesting to browse. You can find photos of kits completed by their customers. <https://www.stewmac.com/>

There are other sources for instrument builders, however, I listed these because I have dealt with each over time and find them to be responsive to their customers and diligent in filling their orders.

Believe It Or Not ..... The mail must go through.... by Andy Longo

Woody Guthrie wrote "Mail Myself to You" in 1963. The first verse includes:

*I'm a-gonna wrap myself in paper,
I'm gonna daub myself with glue,
Stick some stamps on top of my head;
I'm gonna mail myself to you.*

Now one might say he was using poetic hyperbole, but you would be incorrect!

On January 1, 1913, the USPS inaugurated the shipping of large parcels through the mail. This made possible access to goods and services of all kinds to millions of American people. Just a few weeks after Parcel Post began, an Ohio couple named Jesse and Mathilda Beagle "mailed" their 8-month-old son James to his grandmother, who lived just a few miles away in Batavia. According to historian Jenny Lynch, "Baby James was just shy of the 11-pound weight limit for packages sent via Parcel Post, and his "delivery" cost his parents only 15 cents in postage (although they did insure him for $50). The quirky story soon made newspapers, and for the next several years, similar stories would occasionally surface as other parents followed suit."

The shipping of children through the US mail, mostly by train, came to an end in 1920.

*****FEATURED SONG*****

by Paul Cooper

BRING ALL MY WORRIED NATIONS

I think this song is a gem tucked away amid the hundreds and hundreds of Woody's songs. Some of the concerns Woody writes about are little different from those of today. You can hear an excellent rendition of this song by Joel Raphael from his 2-CD tribute album of Woody Guthrie songs at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=L9ysMXEkllk>, or the on the HFMS Audio Archive page at http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/HFS\_Audio\_Archive.html.
