SECOND SATURDAY CONCERT

presents

The Better Halves

(Jimmy Joe Natolie and Chrissie Natolie)

November 13, 2021 7:30PM

West University Community Building,
6104 Auden (at Rice Blvd), Houston

Please wear a face mask. Vaccination is highly recommended for our audience members.

The Better Halves are an Austin musical duo specializing in making listeners smile.

With training at Berklee College of Music and GIT in Hollywood, Jimmy Joe is an amazing guitarist. Country, bluegrass, folk, jazz, Latin and classical styles create a widely appealing repertoire. He has an incredible talent for crafting story songs, and one of his car songs was featured on NPR's "Car Talk" and Kerrville Folk Festival's Newfolk Contest Regional Performance.

Chrissie joins him with amazing vocal harmonies and rhythm guitar. Her whimsical, melodic songwriting earned her the chance to perform on Garrison Keillor's "A Prairie Home Companion".

Second Saturday Concert is presented by the Houston Folklore and Music Society, a non-profit organization dedicated to the preservation of folklore and acoustic music. Light snacks and refreshments are available for purchase. Tickets sold at the door (cash or check only) - adults $18, seniors (65) and students $14, children under 12 free. All profits go to the artists. Concerts are held the second Saturdays of each month (summers and December off) in the West University Community Building at 6104 Auden (intersection of Auden. and Rice Blvd.) Contact Carolyn Davis (281-240-9797) for more concert information or visit our website at: www.houstonfolkmusic.org.

THE OCTOBER CONCERT

a review by Andy Longo

Last month's concert was somewhat of a departure from the usual format. When I arrived there were two groups set up in front of the stage. To the left, The Merritt String Quartet was sitting, and to the right the Balalaika Orchestra was gathering together. On stage, there were various microphones ready for the Kosher Klezmer Band. The music began with offerings from the String Quartet. As I recall there were actually five members with Marissa Merritt playing the double bass. They played a selection of pieces without introduction, but the pieces contained many strains of melodies that were familiar. Next, the Kosher Klezmer band began their set of energetic music. While Klezmer music is that of eastern European music in the Jewish tradition, some of the stylings of the clarinet and cornet players were reminiscent of Dixieland jazz to me. Their vocals ranged from sweet to jaunty. Before their set was finished they had members of the audience dancing around the seated patrons. This was a challenge considering the arrangement of chairs for the evening's performance. After the break, we were treated to the music of the Balalaika Orchestra. The orchestra features several balalaika players which includes a bass balalaika, which on this night was played by Marissa Merritt. Long time member and former Second Saturday promoter, Paul Cooper, was among the balalaika players. The concert master for the group, Vassily Rodionov, was singing and playing on a dombra, a mandolin like instrument. Their pieces included some familiar melodies, and most striking was the powerful vocals of a young man who accompanied himself on the classical guitar. He treated us to a rendition of "Those Were the Days" in Russian.

Please help Support Houston Folklore and Music Society

HFMS IS TEMPORARILY UNAVAILABLE ON SMILE.AMAZON.COM. WE ARE WORKING TO GET THIS RESOLVED AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE! Amazon shoppers can help support HFMS in our mission to continue promoting folk and acoustic music (and similar folklore traditions) in the greater Houston area. Doing so allows us to continue bringing excellent performers to Houston for Second Saturday Concerts. You can help at no cost to you when you make purchases from Amazon. Simply go to smile.amazon.com, sign into your Amazon account and select "Houston Folklore and Music Society" as your charitable organization.

After that, go to smile.amazon.com each time you shop and Amazon will automatically donate 0.5% of the amount of your purchase to HFMS. Every little bit helps! Please send this information to everyone you know who might be willing to support our organization in this way. It only takes a minute and will help us continue the HFMS tradition.

NOVEMBER FEATURED SONG by Paul Cooper
WATER STILL AIN'T GOT ME YET

There is a traditional version of this song. You can hear Rhiannon Giddens perform it here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ExVPmwAmGkY&list=RDExVPmwAmGkY&start_radio=1 Then Dirk Powell came along and penned an extraordinary song of the same title – similar in some respects. I was so impressed with Powell’s version that I emailed him requesting permission to publish his song here. He answered right back, graciously giving his permission, and adding that he wouldn’t mind playing Houston some time. So here it is. You can hear a beautifully arranged version by him at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1MAMu3LHIYA> or on the Audio Archive page of the HFMS website at http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/HFS Audio Archive.html I have transcribed it in the key of C for easier playing and singing. To play along with the recording, Capo IV.

WATERBOUND

by Dirk Powell

Am C
I went out late one night
C F
The moon and stars were shining bright
F G C
Storm come up and the trees come down
C G Am
Tell you boys I was waterbound

Black cat crawling on an old box car
Rusty door and a falling star
Ain't got a dime in my rations sack
Waterbound and I can't get back

Waterbound on a stranger's shore
River rising to my door
Carried my home to the field below
Waterbound nowhere to go

Carved my name on an old barn wall
No one'd know I was there at all
Stables dry on a winter night
You turn your head you could see the light

Yes, I'm gone and I won't be back
Don't believe me count my tracks
River's long and the river's wide
I'll meet you boys on the other side

So say my name and don't forget
Water still ain't got me yet
Nothing but I'm bound to roam
Waterbound and I can't get home
