SECOND SATURDAY CONCERTS

presents

Texan Brian Kalinec has been called "a combination of Woody Guthrie, John Steinbeck, James Taylor, and Rodney Crowell in the stories he tells" in a review in music magazine Rootsy. He has also been described by Robert Bartosh of Roots Music Report as "one of the most creative songwriters from the Texas music scene".

Brian has received a considerable recognition here and abroad, winning events such as the Songwriter Serenade Competition, the Big Top Chautauqua Song Contest, second place in the Woody Guthrie Song Contest and a finalist in the UK Songwriting Contest, to name a few. He was nominated for Songwriter of the Year and Musician of the Year in the Texas Music Awards in the recent past. He has appeared at the Kerrville Folk Festival, and venues such as Uncle Calvin's in Dallas, The Bugle Boy in La Grange, and as a featured guest on Rich Warren's Folkstage on WFMT in Chicago. Brian is currently working on a new project, "The Beauty of it All", which will be released in early 2023.

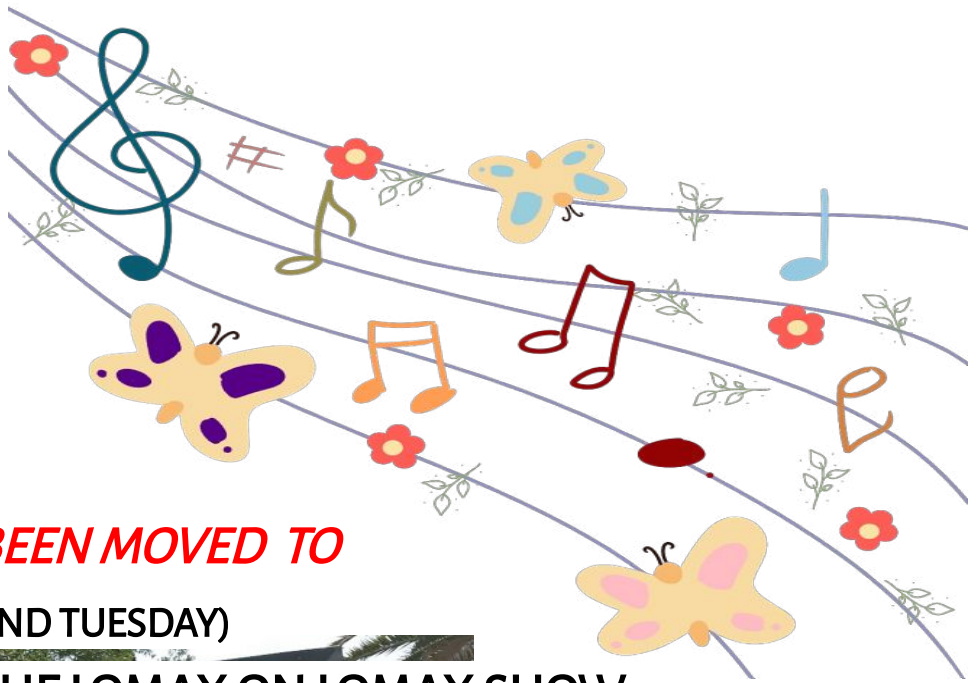

A song from this album, "Redwood Fence", premiered in late January on Americana Highways. He recently toured the UK this summer with his duo partner KJ Reimensnyder-Wagner in late July 2022 in support of the Kalinec & KJ 2021 release "Let's Get Away", which included appearances at the Belladrum Festival near Inverness. His 2023 touring plans include a festival in the Czech Republic and an appearance again at Belladrum.

Brian and his wife Pam own Berkalin Records, a label which is home to a number of well-respected folk and Americana artists. Brian is Past-President of the Southwest Regional Folk Alliance, and was recently on the boards of directors for Songwriter Serenade and HoustonLive. <http://www.briankalinec.com/>

RICK WILSON: A LEGACY IN OAK

Our board member and good friend Rick Wilson passed away Easter morning. Rick was a long-time supporter of HFMS and acoustic music. He was a regular attendee of our Second Saturday concerts, and helped us set up and put on the show. Rick was also a very skilled woodworker, and was generous with the things he made. If you have noticed the little oak CD holders we use on the product table at our concerts, those were made by Rick. He also gave them away to artists who performed here, and you can be sure that there are traveling singer-songwriters all over the United States who carry those with them on their tours. A fine legacy from a fine person.

HOW COULD I HAVE KNOWN

Brian Kalinec has been a well-known performer, producer and friend of acoustic music on the Houston scene for many years. He will perform at our Second Saturday concert Saturday, May 13 (see front page), and has graciously given us permission to publish this song from his new CD, The Beauty of it All, which will be available at the concert. You can hear this song at <https://youtu.be/b0ucjsXtAel>, or on the HFMS Audio Archive page at http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/HFS\_Audio\_Archive.html.

NEXT DOOR STRANGER

By Brian Kalinec

C G
These walls are so thin I can feel my neighbor sweat
G7 C
I can hear the ashes scatter off his danglin' cigarette
F G
I taste every cup of coffee that he fills
Am F G
I smell every shot of whiskey that he spills

C G
He's a flame when he's angry that smolders when he's just upset
G7 C
But he's truly at his worst when his Sunday paper's wet
F G
I feel every book he throws against the wall
Am F G
His conversations make no sense at all

Chorus: F C
He hasn't lived there long; I don't know his name
G C
But he seems a bit familiar and just a touch insane
F C G F
He'd probably be the first to tell you that he's the last to blame
G C
Ooh, that next door stranger.

I can hear him click those channels like popcorn on a fire
And it's hard to get much sleep as he scrolls the volume higher
Then he tosses the remote onto a shelf
I know more about this stranger
Than I know about myself.

CHORUS

Bridge: F G C
I thought it was time a couple words were spoken
F G C Am
I knocked on his door, and it flew right open
F G Am
No one lived there as far as I could see.
F C G
How could I have known the guy next door was me.

Chorus: C G
Guess he didn't live there long; And I never got his name
F
But he surely seemed familiar
G F G F G C
Ooh, that next door stranger.

Houston Highland Games Association Needs Your Help:

Plans are in process for our upcoming annual Houston Highland Games on Oct 14th, 2023, at Humble Civic Center Arena in Humble, Texas. We would love to have you involved in our planning in any way that is possible for you. We need volunteers and sponsors/donations desperately to be able to pull this all together. We want to continue to promote our Scottish culture with athletic games, Clans, Celtic music, Scottish dancers, Bagpipe bands, vendors, and cultural food.

EMMIT'S PLACE NEEDS YOU

As many of you might have heard, Susan, the operator of Emmit's Place and an avid supporter of live music, was recently diagnosed with cancer. She is focused on the health battle ahead and will be unable to operate the club over the next several months.

While she has insurance to cover her medical care, Emmit's Place will not be able to support paying the 70+ hours of labor each week that Susan typically worked unpaid. We are requesting donations to help cover these labor costs so we can keep the doors open at Emmit's Place in her absence. Large or small, any donations are greatly appreciated.

To make a donation and read updates from Susan about progress in her health battle, please visit the GoFundMe page at the link below.
